

IPCC Side Event

Evolution of IPCC Inventory Guidelines and their potential contribution to future climate actions

Thursday, 5 June 2014, 13:15-14:45, Room Tram

The IPCC Inventory Guidelines have evolved to help countries take effective climate policies & measures based on up-to-date scientific knowledge. This event will discuss how they could further contribute to enhancement of climate actions in the future in response to emerging needs.

- Opening Remarks by Co-chair of the Task Force on National Greenhouse Gas Inventories (TFI)

- Review of evolution of IPCC Guidelines including various relevant tools in the context of UNFCCC process
 - ✧ Presentation: Evolution of IPCC Guidelines in the Context of UNFCCC Process (20 min)
 - ✧ Presentation: Tools supporting IPCC Guidelines (10 min)
 - Speakers: TFI Technical Support Unit
 - ✧ Q&A (10 min)

- Discussion on contribution of the IPCC Guidelines to future climate actions
 - ✧ Presentation: Key Questions to Guide Discussion (10 min)
 - Speaker: TFI Technical Support Unit
 - ✧ Discussion (30 min)

- Closing